SFFMC's Friday night in-person musical meetings are back!

SFFMC's in-person musical meetings have started up again, starting on December 8! We're back at Cyprian's Center in San Francisco on the 2nd and 4th Friday nights of every month, from 7 to 11 pm. Cyprian's is at 2097 Turk St., at the corner of Lyon.

There's space for a jam upstairs and a song circle downstairs, plus additional rooms for smaller gatherings. More info is on the SFFMC website at <https://www.sffmc.org/musical-meetings>.

Questions? Contact Glen at gvanlehn@sonic.net.

Our online musical meetings on Zoom are still happening too. The Friday online meetings have now moved to the 1st and 3rd Friday evenings of each month, and the Tuesday afternoon ones are still on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays from 1 pm to 3 pm Pacific Time. More info at <https://www.sffmc.org/musical-meetings>.

Spring Harmony Online will be March 8-10

Save the dates! SFFMC's Spring Harmony will be continuing in 2024 as a major online event. It will run from Friday March 8 to Sunday March 10. Previous Spring Harmony events have brought in participants from around the US and other countries, as well as from our own Northern California area. Details will be posted on the SFFMC website and our Harmony email group as they become available.

2024 SFFMC summer gathering news

We will be returning to Camp Herms high in the El Cerrito hills in 2024 for our July 4 and Labor Day weekend summer gatherings. Dates will be July 5-8 and August 30-September 2.

Unfortunately for us, the Boy Scouts (who own Camp Herms) have scheduled an event of their own at Camp Herms on Memorial Day weekend this year, so the camp will not be available to us that weekend. We are still hoping to have some sort of gathering somewhere in the East Bay that weekend. Details will be in March-April folknik and will be posted on the SFFMC website and our Harmony email group as they become available.

Looking farther ahead, we're trying now to book all three summer holiday weekends at Camp Herms in 2025.

SF Free Festival tentatively set for July 13

We are tentatively planning to have the 2024 San Francisco Free Folk Festival on Saturday July 13 at our 2023 location in Golden Gate Park. We're working now to pin down the date with our partner sponsors for that location, Illuminate and the San Francisco Recreation and Park Department. We're hoping to firm things up by mid-January.

Camp Harmony is about to begin

As announced in earlier folkniks, SFFMC's first in-person New Year's Camp since before the pandemic will run from December 27 until January 1 at Camp Newman, between Santa Rosa and Calistoga. Registration closed several weeks ago, so if you want to come, we hope you registered! We plan to have a report on how it went in the March-April folknik.

Dick Holdstock: Again with One Voice

Sunday, January 28, 2024

3:00 p.m. concert

Bird & Beckett Books, 653 Chenery Street, San Francisco

1-415-586-3733

Dick Holdstock, stalwart club member for many years, spent over three decades researching his book on Again with One Voice: British Songs for Political Reform, 1768 to 1868.

His curiosity started when he discovered numerous British songs praising Napoleon, contradicting official British politics, and grew as he discovered many songs written by and for the people of Britain speaking out about injustices, human rights, and their struggles for democracy during a century of tumult and reform. Dick's singing is vigorous and clear, and he provides background for songs on stage as he has in print. Come out for a rare afternoon concert on the last Sunday in January, to share in the special storytelling that Dick presents so well.

You can't keep a good melody down

by Marlene McCall

Most folk club members will be familiar with 1 or 2 or 3 of these songs, but you may be surprised just how often this tune has been used over the decades.

The dates and recording artists I mention below are the earliest I found for each song, but most of these songs have been extensively covered. Spend a few minutes listening to the songs at the links I've provided. I hope you find it as interesting to listen as I found it to research.

Remembering Faith with film & song

by Estelle Freedman

To commemorate the tenth anniversary of Faith Petric's death, on October 29, 2023, members of the S.F. Folk Club and other friends of Faith gathered in San Francisco to celebrate her life. Faith's daughter, Carol Craig, and her granddaughter, Alex Craig, invited us to reunite at the house, and the Folk Club board and other members generously helped organize the event.

What a joy it was to sing and play in harmony again on Clayton Street, where so much of Singing for Justice, the documentary film about Faith's life, times, and music, unfolds! We watched scenes from the Rough Cut of the film, shared memories of Faith, and then raised our voices in song. Folks who once lived at the house, or who sang there for decades, or who had never been there but have participated in the club at St. Cyprians and on Zoom over the past decade all had the opportunity to meet in person.

If you would like to donate, any amount helps! Please go to <https://tinyurl.com/muyba77k>, or send a check, payable to Catticus Corporation, to 2600 10th St. #249, Berkeley, CA 94710. (Be sure to indicate Singing for Justice in the memo line).

You can learn more about the film and see the trailer at www.singingforjustice.com or on the Facebook page. We are beginning to line up partners to sponsor screenings in 2024. If you know of a group that might be interested, or to get more information, contact faithpetricfilm@gmail.com.

Ed Silberman would love to hear from you

by Peg Healy

Ed is at the Creekside Healthcare Center, 1900 Church Lane, San Pablo CA 94806, which is only 15 minutes by car from N Berkeley. It's a safe place for him to live while he's mobility-impaired, and the food is "surprisingly good."

However, Ed's bored and lonely, and would appreciate a visit, phone call, or text. (Please identify yourself; he's probably lost your number while replacing his phone -- and he doesn't check his phone every day). He really enjoys jokes, news, even books.

Ed's phone is 510-853-1749.

The commemoration coincided with the fall fundraising campaign for Singing for Justice, co-directed by Christie Herring and myself. Since September we have raised over $33,000 of the $80,000 needed to complete film production – including costs for final editing, sound and color correction, and licensing music and images. Several folks have signed on as Associate Producers, helping us get much closer to the goal of releasing

INTO THE MYSTIC

"I've never seen music as a competition. It's a conspiracy. The word "conspire" means to breath together. José Abreu, who was so successful at teaching children how to play music in Venezuela, said, 'Music is a conspiracy to commit beauty.'"

Jaeger & Reid house concert

by Marlene McCall

Bob Reid has been well known in the bay area folk community (and to many of you reading this message) for decades, through his presence at Camp Harmony and other folk club events, his teaching at schools, his concerts, his association with Pete Seeger, his original songwriting, and even his participation at previous festivals.

Bob met Judi Jaeger in 2015, and the resulting musical duo is clearly something very special. Well-crafted songs that are sometimes hauntingly sad, other times hopefully inspiring or joyfully celebratory. Their songs tackle social issues, they tell personal stories, they encourage, but they also commiserate. Beautiful double-guitar work and vocal harmonies (and maybe ukulele).

Jaeger & Reid will be playing a house concert on February 7, 2024 in Oakland, CA at "Oakland House Concerts." To make a reservation and receive the address, please write to Charlie at houseconcert@att.net. Requested donation is $30 ($20 for low income).

Joni Mitchell archives

by Marlene McCall

You can stream the entire 119 tracks recorded in 1963 to 1967, in a box set archive that has just been released. This includes Joni singing a lot of traditional folk songs, and also 29 original songs she wrote and recorded but never put out before now.

The player (embedded in the link below the picture) allows you to listen to the entire collection, or else choose only specific songs.

Write for the folknik

by Daniel Hersh

The folknik needs material! We welcome any items related to folk music, especially in the Bay Area. You can look at back issues here to see the sorts of things we publish: reflective articles, news items, album and book reviews, songs, poems and much more. The current folknik editorial team is very small. I'm the interim lead editor, Marlene McCall handles club news and writings, and Shelby Solomon does the calendar. That's everyone at the moment, so we would really appreciate your help!

Here's where to send items:

- SFFMC events and news about members, such as births, deaths, marriages, new CDs by members, members' web site URLs, instruments for sale or wanted to buy, articles by members about topics related to folk music, book and CD reviews. etc. Send these items to Marlene McCall at marlenepersonal@officeservices911.com.
- Virtual and live event calendar listings: Shelby Solomon at folknikcal@yahoo.com.
- Anything else: send to me at hrshsand@earthlink.net.

The submission deadline for each upcoming folknik is always shown in the folknik info just before the calendar at the end of the issue. Thanks!

Hybrid board meetings

by Marlene McCall

SFFMC board meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month at 8:00 p.m. Meetings are currently in a hybrid Zoom/in-person format. The board meeting dates for January and February are January 9th and February 13th. If you'd like to attend a board meeting in person or via Zoom, please contact Ed Hilton, club president, at info@sffmc.org.

For those coming to Camp Harmony, there will be a general meeting on Saturday 12/30/23 at noon.

Club music meetings

by Marlene McCall

As described in the page 1 article of this folknik, in-person club music meetings have resumed! I'll give info here on both Zoom and in-person meetings. Whichever way you participate, please keep remarks brief (in between songs and during introductions) so everyone can contribute

Zoom meetings are held on the 1st and 3rd Friday of each month, from 7:00 to 11:00 p.m., and on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of each month, from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. Upcoming Friday dates are January 5th and 19th, and February 2nd and 16th, 2024. Upcoming Tuesday dates are January 2nd and 16th, and February 6th and 20th, 2024

In-person meetings take place on the 2nd and 4th Friday of every month, at 7:00 p.m. Upcoming Friday dates are January 12th and 26th and February 9th and 23rd, 2024.

The location for the in-person meetings is St. Cyprian's Episcopal Church, 2097 Turk St., San Francisco, corner of Lyon.

Driving and parking: In most of San Francisco finding parking is a challenge, but the two long blocks along the north side of Turk, from Baker to Lyon to Central, have no curb cuts, no buildings, no garages. So parking there is somewhat better than average.

Muni buses: 31 Balboa connects BART Powell St. station @ 5th/Market and stops at Turk Street & Lyon St. directly across Turk from Cyprian's. Also, 43 Masonic Ave., a major crosstown line, stops at Turk St. two blocks west of Cyprian's.

Questions about in-person meetings can be sent to Glen Van Lehn – gvanlehn@sonic.net.

November board meeting highlights

By Hali Hammer and Daniel Hersh

Finances: BMO now charges $1 for each cash deposit, which is something new with BMO that didn't happen with Bank of the West.

So far we have given out $9,993 in Camp Harmony camperships. The committee decided that we would give out a maximum of $13,000 in camperships for this year. Since there has been $2,905 donated during registration of Camp Harmony, we could consider that there is still $5,912 left to give out for this year.

Faith's film: A lot of people showed up, and excerpts from the film were shown. About 30-35 people were there. A good time was had by all. So far, they haven't raised enough to complete the project and may have to lower some of their expectations for the film's production in order to complete it.

Cyprian's: Will go live 2nd and 4th Fridays starting December 8.

Cyprian's and Tuesdays Zoom 1st and 3rd week for both: There are consistently about 25 people for Cyprian's and 15-16 people for Tuesdays. This will continue until at least the end of January.

Tess sent out a request that the Board approve up to $100 for treats and supplies for a party for the first live Cyprian's. Daniel made the motion, Hali seconded. Unanimously approved.

Website: Daniel continues to keep it up to date. He and Valerie are talking about making some changes to the menu to make it more understandable for people to find what appears there.

Board Expansion: nothing to report. We will chat to prospective candidates at Camp Harmony and have some feelers going out afterwards.

folknik: November/December is out. Deadline for January/February is December 15, but hopefully people will be able to submit articles for that issue by the 10th so it can be worked on before Camp Harmony.

El Cerrito FFF: Bob reported that we had twice as many bands, and it was a really good festival. 300+ people showed up. The outdoor workshops were well attended. There is about $200 in expenses that Bob will submit to Dave.

Camp Harmony: Charlie reported: Early Bird registration ended Sunday at noon. We have 116 people arriving on Wednesday, 24 on Thursday, 26 on Friday and 9 on Saturday. There are 175 signed up as of now.

We need 725 camper days to meet our minimum. Will needs to complete the report for Ellen. Registration is open until December 12, so it's not too late to sign up. Patience is arranging workshops. We will have a General Meeting at camp. We only have one hour instead of two for our time. (The second hour would go into our lunch break.) Daniel: We should plan on how to use our time if we only have an hour for both reports and discussion. Jerry: We should start promptly so we don't waste time.

Jerry has 6 walkie-talkies that he can charge up for the campout. Wi-Fi is very good at camp, but cell phone service is spotty. However, phones can be set to a Wi-Fi setting for calls and texts on cell phones.

SFFFF: Daniel has corresponded with Parks and Rec. We need to find out when we have to set up a firm date for the Festival.

Camp Herms: We are slated for July 4 and Labor Day weekends, but Memorial Day weekend is not available. Hali will call Nathalie to firm up the details tomorrow and pay the deposit for the two camps.

December board meeting highlights

By Bob Helliessen and Hali Hammer

Cyprian's: Ed reported that the Cyprians meeting had 12 attendees on December 8 and the meeting was a good one. There is a goal to increase the attendance of these meetings.

Camp Harmony: Registration ended December 12. There will be lots of volunteer jobs required, mostly driven by a complicated parking situation, so attendees will need to provide help. The Harmony committee is excited that Harmony will be great!

Spring Harmony: No report. The committee will focus on the event after Camp Harmony is over.

SFFFF: Daniel reported that the date of July 13 is almost nailed down, and the festival will basically be in the same area as the 2023 event.

Camp Herms: We are solid on July 4 and Labor Day for 2024, but Memorial Day is not available at Herms. Our deposits on the two events have been cashed. Hali has been trying to contact Nathalie of the Boy Scouts on details and future years but so far has been unable to reach her.

I served my master faithfully for seven long years or more,
Till I shipped aboard the Ocean Queen belonging to Tramore.

And soon we reached Bermuda's isle where I met with Captain Moore,
The Commander of the Flying Cloud from out of Baltimore,
He asked me if I'd ship with him a slaving voyage to go,
To the burning shores of Africa, where the sugar cane does grow.

It was after weeks of sailing that we arrived off Africa's shore,
Five hundred of them poor slaves, me boys, from their native land we bore,
We marched them up upon a plank and we stove them down below,
Scarce eighteen inches to a man was all they had to go.

Then the plague and fever came on board, swept half of them away
We dragged their bodies up on deck and hove them in the sea,
It were better for the rest of them if they had died below
Then to work 'neath the cruel planters in Cuba forever more

And then after stormy weather, boys, we arrived off Cuba's shore
We sold them to the planters there to be slaves forever more
For the rice and coffee seed to sow beneath the broiling sun
And to lead a lone and wretched life 'til their career was run

Well, it's now our money is all spent, we must go to sea again
When Captain Moore comes on the deck and says unto us men
'There's gold and silver to be had if with me you'll remain,
We'll hoist the pirate flag aloft and scull the Spanish Main.'

We all agreed but three young men who were told to swim to land
Two of them were Boston boys, the one from Newfoundland
I wish to God I'd joined those men and went with them on shore
Than to lead a wild and reckless life serving under Captain Moore.

For we sacked and plundered many a ship upon the Spanish Main,
Caused many a widow and orphan in sorrow to remain,
To the crews we gave no quarter but gave them watery graves,
For the saying of our captain was: "Dead men tell no tales. "

And pursued we were by many a ship, both frigates and liners too,
Till, at last, a British Man-O-War, The Dungeness, hove in view,
She fired a shot across our bows as we sailed before the wind,
Till a chainshot cut our mainmast down and we fell far behind.

Our crew they beat to quarters as they ranged up alongside,
And soon across our quarter-deck there ran a crimson tide,
We fought till Captain Moore was killed and fifteen of our men,
Then a bombshell set our ship on fire, and we had to surrender then.

So it's now to Newgate we have come, bound down with iron chains,

For the sinking and the plundering of ships on the Spanish Main,
The judge he found us guilty and we are condemned to die.
Oh, young men a warning by me take, lead not such a life as I.

So it's far you well, old Waterford, and the girl that I adore,
I'll never kiss your lips again; I'll squeeze your breast no more,
For whiskey and bad company have made a wretch of me,
Young men, a warning by me take, and shun all piracy.
