Memorial Day Weekend Camp New! Camp Herms

We have a new camp—for Memorial Day, July 4 and Labor Day weekends, 2020!

Location: Camp Herms is at 1100 James Place, El Cerrito.

Directions: From the “Circle” in Berkeley, follow Arlington Blvd. for about 2+ miles. Past Arlington Park in El Cerrito, about 0.6 miles north of Moeser Lane, turn off Arlington Blvd. onto Thors Bay Road, then into the camp at 1100 James Place.

Memorial Day weekend dates: Friday, May 22, Saturday, May 23, and Sunday, May 24. Checkout day is Monday, May 25.

Facilities: The camp’s capacity is several hundred people: plenty of room. Highlights are:

- o Large Lodge (Main Hall), which will be a shelter for day use in case of wet or cold weather. In the Lodge: North Room, with capacity of about forty-five; stage; and restrooms.
- o Large kitchen adjoining the Main Hall.
- o RVs are welcome; they park in the parking lot across from the Main Hall, but no hookups.
- o Spaces for tents are at the Redwood Grove, a large fairly even lot about the size of a football field. Campers can drive to Redwood Grove, park in the designated area, unload gear, then drive back to the parking lot.

Since space for parking and unloading is limited, we may use the car pass system that has been used at Boulder Creek to limit the number of cars in the area at one time.

Camping will be in Redwood Grove only—all other areas are closed to SFFMC on Memorial Day weekend. (See map.)

There is a bathroom building at one end of Redwood Grove, one grill and fire ring and picnic tables.

The camp has neighbors close in El Cerrito, so evening singing after 10:00 p.m. must be inside the Lodge (Main Hall) with the windows closed. Other activities need to be quiet, especially at night. At Boulder Creek, we had complaints from the ranger about loud singing after 10:00 p.m., and at the last Labor Day campout a complaint about loud activities after the concert one night.

Rates: Adults: $25/night per person; kids under 15: $8/night per person, also day use. Day use rate for adults: $15/person.

Registration: No advance registration; register at camp. Registration will be opposite the Lodge (Main Hall); in case of wet or cold weather, it will be inside the Main Hall. Look for the sign: REGISTER HERE—SFFMC. Outside of registration hours, contact a member with a yellow STAFF t-shirt.

Musical Meetings

Musical meetings of the San Francisco Folk Music Club are held every 2nd and 4th Friday at Cyprian’s ARC, 2097 Turk Street (at Lyon), San Francisco. There is plenty of street parking, but if you can't find anything closer, you may park in the blood bank lot at Turk and Masonic. Cyprian's asks that if we park in the lot, we use a parking pass. Parking passes are stored on the info table right inside the front entrance of the church. You can pull up to the front entrance and step inside to get one before you park. You can keep it in your car for future use since they are not dated. Singing and jamming start at 8:00 pm; we start clean-up at 11:30 and need to leave by midnight. Two of the rooms require earlier leaving times. Bring finger-food snacks and beverages if you can. Guests are always welcome, and no one is expected to “perform”. Cyprian’s charges us rent; we ask those who can to donate $5 to $10 per evening, but if you can’t donate, we still want you to join us!

In consideration of our members' allergies and other concerns, only service animals are permitted at SFFMC events, and all our events are fragrance-free. The wearing of perfumes or heavily-scented products is not permitted. If a situation arises that cannot be easily remedied, members may be asked to show responsibility by taking their pet home or going home to change out of clothing that has picked up the offending scents.

Ray Bierl, Kathy Kallick House Concerts in Oakland

Thursday, March 19th: Longtime SFFMC favorite Ray Bierl. Ray has been performing songs from across the American landscape for well on to six decades. He’s a musical storyteller who draws on a wide range of genres and styles — cowboy ballads, vintage rock and roll hits, traditional folk songs, Tin Pan Alley songs and country classics. Plays a pretty mean fiddle, too.

Thursday, April 16th. The Kathy Kallick Band. Winner of a Grammy and two IBMA Awards, Kathy needs no introduction to Bay Area Bluegrass fans. "Jaw-dropping awesome!!!" is how the Delaware Valley Bluegrass Festival describes the Kathy Kallick Band. They are based along the west coast, from the San Francisco Bay Area to Anchorage, but their powerful mixture of original and classic music, mirroring their distinctive combination of traditional and contemporary sensibilities, has great appeal everywhere.

These house concerts are located near the Grand Lake Theater and Lake Merritt, in Oakland. For more information and reservations, send an email message to houseconcert@att.net.

The San Francisco Folk Music Club Presents the 6th Annual

Faith Petric Benefit Concert for Camp Harmony

Saturday, April 18, 2020
7 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Featuring instrumental and vocal acoustic music with acclaimed California musical performers, including:

RAY BIERL
DICK HOLDSTOCK & AARON CLEGG
HOGAN & HILL
KAREN IMPERIAL & DOUG JONES
AND MORE!

This event raises funds for camperships (camp scholarships), assisting musicians to attend the SFFMC winter music retreat in western Marin county. The concert, along with silent auction and professionally catered refreshments, is an annual tradition that you won't want to miss.

We'll bring back a great Mediterranean menu including award-winning brews, and hold a silent auction to raise additional donations.

We would love to see your shining faces at this community-friendly evening. Bring along friends who are interested in Camp Harmony but have not yet attended.

$25 + suggested donation sliding scale if you can't make it to the event in-person, you're still welcome to donate for the cause.
Tickets will be available through Brown Paper Tickets by March 1st

Let us know if you can volunteer to help out either before or during the concert.

Please contact Amelia Hogan for more information and opportunities to volunteer:
ameliaisaverb@yahoo.com or 831-331-3705

Silent Auction at the Benefit Concert

Contribute to Harmony camperships by donating goods or services to the Silent Auction! We seek items, or donated services—such as a music lesson, concert passes, a catered meal, whatever special talent you can provide as a small freely given pleasure to others—to be offered at the silent auction held before and into intermission at the Benefit Concert on April 18th.

Contact Patience Young to register your donation: patiencesinging@gmail.com
Bring your item to the hall at least one half hour before concert time.
Receive a receipt for your donation, for tax purposes.
That's IT.

OK, beyond that: bid on others' donations that appeal to you!

The Inspiration of Mark Levy

as told to Donna Scarlett by Mark Levy

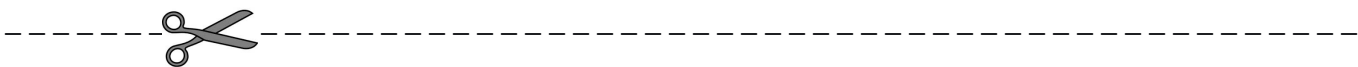

In 1982, SFFMC member and musician Mark Levy attended a Sing Out! meeting in New York City, where Pete Seeger heard him sing. When he returned to California, a letter from Pete was waiting for him with a lot of embarrassing compliments, including "...inspiring. I don't often hear someone with such a great voice and clear sense of direction." Their friendship and correspondence continued until Pete's passing, and Pete Seeger's inspiration lives on in Mark, as it does in many of us.

Although he did not speak until the age of four, Mark Levy started singing in utero, keeping his mother awake at night and refusing to come into the world until several sets of songs were sung, inducing a 24 hour labor. He started formal music lessons on piano at age 6, but switched to guitar because it was easier to carry. Other stringed instruments followed, notably banjo and dulcimer, and then trap drums so he could make even more noise. His three octave vocal range has been known to shatter nerves and create angelic auras surrounding enemies, forcing them to surrender.

Satirical writings come naturally to Mark, as the political situation is always rife with material at any given moment. Songs from around the world in many languages are always in abundance at his performances, for as he says, he feels safer in foreign languages than in English, as people who disagree must then voice their objections in the language of the song. He also specializes in Yiddish folk songs, as he was raised by a maternal grandmother who spoke English when she did not want him to understand.

Moving to the West Coast in the 1970's became necessary when Richard Nixon became president, and Henry Kissinger won the Nobel peace prize. Mark has been a member of the SFFMC since 1976, and although he now lives in Oregon, promises to visit (upon) the Bay Area on a regular basis. If you didn't see him on February 29 at Redwood Gardens (his only SF Bay Area appearance this winter / spring), you can check out his music and upcoming shows at www.marklevymusic.com.

With mailing costs rising, there has been much discussion within the SFFMC community about transitioning to an online-only folknik. The folknik would not exist without all of you, our faithful contributors and readers, and so we would really appreciate your input. As such, please take a moment to complete this survey. Should you prefer to take the survey online, you may do so at: <https://forms.gle/NwwYLQYLYu2WD2199>

Fiddle All Day

c 1996 Valentine Doyle

Oh, the wind can blow and the snow can snow, (to me fa-ra-did-dle fid-dle all day). It can drop right down to twen-ty be low (to-me fa-ra-did-dle fid-dle all day). And it's What do we care for the snow and sleet? There's plen-ty of sing-ing & plen-ty to eat, There's plen-ty of tunes to tap your feet, (to me fa-ra-did-dle fid-dle all day). CHORUS: To Me-gun-ti-cook, to me Duck-trap, to me Pas-sa-gas-sa-wau-keag to the Bay. To me fa-ra-did-dle ding now did-n't I sing, to me fa-ra-did-dle fid-dle all day.

CHORUS:

To Megunticook, to me Ducktrap,
to me Passagassawaukeag to the Bay,
To me Faradiddle ding, now didn't I sing,
to me faradiddle, fiddle all day.

Oh, the wind can blow and the snow can snow
(To me faradiddle, fiddle all day)
It can drop right down to twenty below
(To me faradiddle, fiddle all day)
And it's what do we care for the snow and sleet?
There's plenty of singing and plenty to eat,
Plenty of tunes to tap your feet
(To me faradiddle, fiddle all day)

Chorus

Now some come a-travelling a half a day or more
(to me faradiddle ...)
Some come stepping from over next door,
And it's come in stamping from the cold,
There's tall and small, there's young and old,
There's more than the dear old house can hold –

Chorus

Oh we're gonna have beans and hot potato bake
Chicken stew and cherry pie and Aunt Mabel's cake.
So set it on the table, whatever you've got,
Pull off your boots, have something hot,
There's soup on the bubble in the big red pot –

Chorus

Well you come in the door and you haven't got a chance
'Cause your fingers gotta fiddle
or your feet gotta dance
And it's hey for the parlor, hear 'em go
Guitar and fiddle and the old banjo
And it's reel and hornpipe, heel and toe –

Chorus

Oh the singing is fine and the moon is high
All the good old songs from the days gone by
And it's raise the rafters, let 'em ring,
Everybody's got a song to bring,
The lamplight's yellow and we all come sing –

Chorus

Oh the singing is soft and the moon is down
Little ones sleeping in the shadows around
Oh, the winter can sing and so can we –
Now, roll out your pallet, it's almost three.
Snuggle up warm and let the blizzard be.

Chorus

JIMMY McBRIDE

c 2002 Jerry Prayer

Staff

In In - ish-ow-en in north Don e - gal, When you were a wee lad just start-ing to crawl,
 You sat by the hearth where the peat fire burned, Your folks sang the old songs
CHORUS:
 and there you first learned. One by one all your com rades have gone, They've left you to fin - ish your pint all a - lone, All of the oth - ers have grown old and died; Do you still sing the old songs now, Jim -my Mc Bride?

2. A few years later when you were a boy
 Singing the songs brought you comfort and joy
 You listened so eagerly, right from the start
 By the time you reached manhood you knew them by heart

CHORUS

3. Leaving the homestead, you drifted along
 And there in your heart you took all the old songs
 Then you married Roisin and had babes of your own
 You sang them the old songs 'til they were full grown

CHORUS

4. By the time your children had grown up, you swore
 They would learn all the old songs as you did before
 But employment was meager, you must understand
 They all had to settle in far distant lands

CHORUS

5. But still you went to O'Flaherty's pub
 To sing the old song with the regular club
 As you stared at those faces so far past their prime
 It was plain to be seen that there wasn't much time

CHORUS

About the Singer & Songwriter

"When Jerry and I first went to Ireland we met Jimmy McBride at the Willy Clancy Summer School in Miltown Malbay, County Clare. He said that if we were ever in Donegal to ring him up and we would be welcome at the local session of Sean Nos singing. We didn't get there that year, but 12 years later we returned to Ireland and rang Jimmy to let him know we were going to be in Donegal the next week and would love to join the singing session. Jimmy told Jerry that he was the only singer left, all the others had died. When Jerry got off the phone and told me what Jimmy had said, I replied "Oh, that's so sad. It deserves a song." Jerry always said that the song was a true story in a Hollywood sense. We found out later that Jimmy wasn't telling us the truth and that the singers were doing just fine. But we got a good song out of it. "

Activities: Jams and workshops, informal jams in the daytime and evening, two nights of open mics, and a variety of workshops. Potluck dinner.

- Open Mics: Usually on the second and third nights of camp, 8:00 p.m.. The sign-up list will be at Registration. Open mics will be at the indoor stage in the Lodge (Main Hall).
- Workshops: Anyone can lead a workshop. Sign up at camp at the workshop bulletin board near the registration table. Workshops will be scheduled at camp.
- Potluck dinner: A community potluck dinner will be held on Saturday night, 6:30 p.m., in the - Lodge (Main Hall). We can use the camp’s kitchen—with refrigerator and freezer, three stoves, oven and microwave—to store and heat potluck food. The kitchen also has plates, silverware, pans, and serving utensils.

All dishes, pots and pans MUST be washed after use. Please pitch in and wash your dishes. See the directions posted in the kitchen for the places for preparation of food and for dishwashing. Put your name on leftovers you want saved. Labels for folkies are usually in an envelope on the refrigerator.

IMPORTANT: The kitchen must be kept clean if we want to continue using it; this is a do-it-yourself chore for anyone who uses the kitchen at all. Please clean up promptly.

Pitching In: Everyone over 12 (except day-use attendees staying less than four hours) does at least an hour per camp of duty: registration, cleanup after the potluck dinner, kitchen cleanup on the last day, and setting up and putting away camp chairs and tables in the Main Hall. The Scouts also have a checklist of chores that we will need to do. Please sign up for a chore at the registration table as soon as possible after arriving. And please show up for your chore. If you can’t, then please leave a note at registration so we can cover the chore.

Publicity: We want to publicize this camp-out widely to increase attendance so we can afford to keep coming to this camp. Spread the word to all your friends who are interested in folk music! It is not necessary to be a member to attend, although we appreciate new memberships. Membership forms (for new members and renewals) will be available at the registration table and also from the link on our home page at <www.sffmc.org>. If you can help with publicity, we have post cards about the Memorial Day weekend to distribute. They will be available at Board meetings, Cyprian’s meetings, and the March 1 fold-in. Or, I can mail you several post cards: contact <folkniked@earthlink.net>. Some possible places to distribute them: music stores, libraries, music classes, folk music events and venues such as the Freight and Salvage, interested friends. Thanks for your help!

For March and early April events, please see page 10.

CD Release Concert — Riggy Rackin — SIMPLE

March 20th, 7:30pm at:
Timbre Folk & Baroque
801 Bancroft Way Berkeley, California 94710

“A couple of years ago my English friend Chris complained that all my recordings had bands playing along and choruses singing harmonies and didn’t have what I presented at the London folk clubs: simple, well-chosen and relatively unfamiliar folksongs, with sparse concertina accompaniment. Hopefully he and others with similar tastes will enjoy this new one.” Riggy.

Many Voices, One Art (MVOA)

Now in its 5th year, MVOA is a unique musical event eagerly anticipated by singers from around the Bay Area and beyond. All are welcome — no music reading or vocal training is necessary to enjoy this FREE day of singing, learning, making friends, and finding community through music. It offers a wide variety of local choral offerings in a range of free workshops. Hosted by the SF Bach Choir, this year’s MVOA will be on Saturday, March 7, 2020, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The event location is Calvary Presbyterian Church, 2515 Fillmore Street (at Jackson), San Francisco.

You may register in advance at <https://sfbach.salsalabs.org/manyvoicesoneart-372020/index.html?page=register>.

Get involved with the San Francisco Free Folk Festival

by Marlene McCall

Although the submission deadline has already passed for proposals from performers and workshop leaders, there are still lots of opportunities to help with the festival. (See article on page 1 for general festival info.) Here are some of the ways you can volunteer at the festival:

- Help with pre-festival publicity in various ways.
- Greet festival attendees as they arrive, hand out print programs, answer questions.
- Staff the club information or sales tables.
- Work a shift in the Instrument Check room.
- Hand out print programs to attendees as they arrive, and answer their questions.
- Help with festival set-up in the morning or tear-down in the evening.
- Staff the crafts table for the family program.
- MC a segment of one of the stage performances.
- Work the sound system at the Faith Petric stage (if you have the needed skills and experience)

The online volunteer sign-up page may not yet be up at the time you read this in the folknik, but you can let us know you’re interested in helping by sending an email to sfff-volunteer@googlegroups.com. See you on June 13!
