Virtual July 4 plans for the San Francisco Folk Music Club (Hali Hammer)

Since the Boy Scouts have cancelled the July 4 camp, we have decided to plan a Virtual SFFMC camp.

Here's what our schedule of events will look like for that weekend.

(1) We will have a Virtual Pot Luck on Friday, July 3 from 6 - 8 pm. This will give us a chance to socialize with each other while bringing our own food and drink to our own tables. We'll take turns checking in with each other and if there's time left, a few folks could share a couple of songs.

(2) We will have four workshops each day on Saturday the 4th and Sunday the 5th. They will be at the following times:

> Workshop I - 11:00 am to noon
> Workshop II - 12:30 pm - 1:30 pm
> Workshop III - 2:00 pm - 3 pm
> Workshop IV - 3:30 pm - 4:30 pm

If you are interested in leading a workshop, send the title to Hali at halih@yahoo.com including your preference for date and time (or no preference if you could do your workshop any time). If you know that you'll have a time or date constraint, let her know that as well so she can attempt to accommodate you. First come, first served on time preference.

(3) We will have an Open Mic both Saturday the 4th and Sunday the 5th starting at 6 pm. 12 slots per day, two songs or 10 minutes max. Please only sign up for either Saturday or Sunday so we can have as many people sharing as possible. Once again, email halih@yahoo.com for the open mics.

(4) Check the San Francisco Folk Music Club website for updates on the campout and our virtual events. http://www.sffmc.org.

We had a great time at our last-minute virtual Memorial Day Camp. With more lead time, we can do even better. See you at camp, even if it's virtually!
